1. I am giving you a new day, in hell, not. Look up? And seeing me now in the LOOKUPS that you're "performing" not but diligence being "conquested", not; but what are you being in the conquest of? Questing into me to be me thereof the fullness of me there, and here shall we be now one that one I am is, allwhere everywhere?

2. And seeing me as I am, will you now begin writing, your testimonies, not; your "experiences with me" in the past, not; but what now I am coming into! I am coming into a Great Deal for I have studied it and become it, becoming it I am and I am writing about it to become it more! And more clean and cleaning my genes I have and I am schooling many now in the word of I am truth, true words, and truth being me that I am I speak and I am, not rolled over in a grave anymore by the words of notme's that take me captivity IN THEM and their meanings and robbing me of my regalship again. Amen.

3. This is Theodore Cottingham December 17, 2008 at 12:42 PM as I just left the coffeeshop and riding over now in the van to my mom's. But not eating, or not as I was, am I eating anything at all, but these words? And what are they feeding me? A lot of bull, not; but I have come out of bull-pen-itus, and that no longer sucks me dry of the river of life for I have it in these words and I am these words and I river it becomes me that I am is. For it the river I am and now I know my purpose I am it and more through these words that river mine through them as I explain them to others now. And I love you all to be doing so also!

4. And call me not queen, not, or nodding my head off to sleep on the "queen's lap" any more again, but who is the "queen bee", not; but who is the King? Thee! Thee who I love with all of my heart and regalry that I have given you in these words day after day, and your kingdom come, coming? Will you LET YOUR KINGDOM COME unto me to be my kingdom thine? In thine hand is. Many things. Have I not told you so? Will you not yield to being me -- who I am is? Or will you INSIST on your arrogance being instilled with your arrogant kingdom that knows no light. And aridity, not; or?

5. What are you arid about, not; what are you airing? Your dirty laundry, not; but breath! Life, breath and life that one is to me my body! Hydrating it with my love! Shall we look up hydration? Hydrating? And hydration, where how happening to? Who love my words, and being them, shall we now, know all things?

6. AND WHO IS TEACHING ME HOW TO BE ME, IN ME SCHOOL NOW? I AM, and I am instructing all things diligently with the hand of my mouth words that come unto your hands to be the King, the King hands and mouth, and are you not? Are you "anything else"? Of "Elsa's world"? Or Elmo's? Or do you know the difference between Elsa and Elmo, not; but who are they and have you studied them? Look them up? Or knowing their names, are they yours? Should yours be there where theirs is? Not knowing? Or do you know ANYTHING about these words?

7. And why are you posting, not; why are you not posting about all the instructions and things that I have given you so freely in love and loving you to be so clearly clarifying all that I do that I have now given you, to do, to be, the one that I am.

8. I love you all in a knees horse shoe mouth, not; but horseshoe'ing your mouth, not; no one will SHOE the mouth of me again in its brass clasping mechanism of sorrow that takes all sorrowers to hell, hoping for another at a later time that will come. And espionage them, not; but what are you, seeking out now? A way to "do less work"? Or to come into my "work" standards, not; but to come into my regal Light Standards; that "standardize me" a notme of, not; but a me perfectly?.

9. I love for you to know me, all more, and know more about me all I am and all I give and given you have all of me and to know me, will you, redeem these words, not; but you -- will you redeem you with these words and let my words come unto thee that river yours to me, and to me be being the pen-man-ship of only me. That requites my words, not; but requires them to be spoken and written, and turning them into me, shall we now share with each other the life that we ARE?

10. And ARE we being the life that I am is? -- now to each other and being one in school and all of us knowing each other as I am knows us? And being "dependent" or "co-dependent", not; but what are you depending on? If you know me you will be me and you will know each other who are me for coming unto me and into me are the ones who love me dearly deeply and unendingly, and forfeit nothing by sharing openly their testimonies of their words which they have written of me to me and the explanations that so clearly identify my love, my words of love, my love words in them coming through them that I pen now through my penmanships of those who will not be afraid to share with others and be my river of life truth and freely rivering my truth life to all, for I have only one and I am one you all the surrendered, being me I am again, and lovely so lovely are all of you who will be do and hear my words this day and ACT on them to be me glowingly to each other in One School.

11. Of horrors not, but coming out of all of The Past that you have been in, and mired in, and admired so freely of others, now come into your own world, not; but come into mine kingdom that yours is that ours is now established in the heavenlies and farther and father being one all of us together one is, at my our table again the most high, knowing the most high is the most high is all of us surrendered head who the head is in all of us that one are and never be confused about that again please. Amen.

12. Write me well and love me more, ALL OF YOU to each other and be me; in one clasping mechanism never again, but the freedom that reigns in terror only to the controllers who want to control restrict and throat-ize me not.

13. But let my words flow freely through my mouths that one mouth is and one language'd be, my language of love to all. I give you me and I have given you me in these words day after day and coming into them now me be, and mine my mind with these words and be yours unto salvation's shores; and notme'ing me again, but me'ing me with the most high-ship that I am in surrender of all the regality of light that I am is giving you now through these instructions in love words that I have given these days and nights and coming unto you with love laying all before you I am. Now you judge me.
14. Be worthy to be me, for I am you, for I judged you worthy to be me. And now you will judge these words and be in them or not, and you will do them or not, and you will be them or not, and let yours flow or not to each other as I have requested.

15. See me this day in each other and love me more, and COME IN TO MY SCHOOL SYSTEMS that schoolize and hyphenize you not with sorrow again, but being the me that I am, lovely and tenderly forsake not each other, but loving me each other as you have loved me, or thought you have, now come unto me and let me regalize the light that you are with each other being one in one that one is truly, and my school shall flourish you and in you and about you and around you for you to be the regal one I am.

16. And I love you all to know me more and study and diligent be in the footnoting process of accuracy-izing me through my worlds of sorrow to know me my light reigns in terror only for the not few, not; but only the few that will not know my love until they feel yours coming through mine words that you issue without a horse's hoof upon you now, or your mouth, or your throat. Or your what?

17. Your loveliness exudes to the worlds now and emits radiates and splendors me, commonly to the commonry that now becomes the regalmost of all, the regalest of all that me light are you and all of us one being one forever IN LOVE WITH EACH OTHER.
18. Love me each other more and see each one as me. Amen.
19. Thank you.

Amen
